

4 Periods of Music

BAROQUE
(1600-1750)

CLASSICAL (1750-1830)

ROMANTIC
(1820-1900)

MODERN (1920-now)

Classical (1750-1830)

The piano was born,
now able to play
loud and soft

Orchestra grew with new instruments called the woodwinds

Piano Concerto is when a solo pianist is playing with an orchestra accompaniment

Opera is a theatrical performance sung with an
orchestra accompaniment

Well-known composers in the Classical

Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart
- Started composing at age 5
- Was famous as a child

Listening:
Twinkle Twinkle

Rondo Alla Turca

Ludwig Van Beethoven
- Went deaf and continued to compose music
- He was considered a classical composer and a romantic composer at the end of his life

Listening:
Pathetique Sonata
III.Presto

Moonlight Sonata

To find the listenings, go to alisaspianostudio.com, click "performance class" tab, click "Have a Listen" click "February"

To find this handout, go to alisaspianostudio.com, click "performance class" tab, click "music history" click "February"