Guitar Lessons

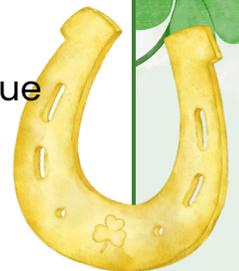

We are thrilled to announce that Ms. Varsy's brother, Mr. Vahan, is officially returning to our studio as our guitar teacher, this time for good. After a year of careful planning and collaboration, we are confident that Mr. V is now a permanent part of our teaching team.

If your child has been interested in learning guitar now is the perfect time to join.

We're excited to bring this program back and continue growing our music family together.

June Recital Updates

We are currently finalizing a venue for our June recital, so some of our recital planning dates are being pushed back slightly. Thank you for your patience as we work through the details. We are hoping to have everything confirmed by mid-March and will share the updated information as soon as it is finalized.
